

Please do not overturn this law since this is what all families need in this day and age. Family values are always being talked about during election time and yet, when the time comes for politicians to do something about it nothing happens.